

School pupils enjoyed a “Taste of their Future” at Barony

Over 170 school pupils gained the opportunity to try out different practical tasks at the “Taste of Your Future” event that was held on the Barony Campus at Scotland’s Rural College.

Have your say on life in rural areas for the ‘Recharging Rural’ research

The Prince’s Countryside Fund with Professor Sarah Skerratt from Scotland’s Rural College is inviting anyone living in rural areas of the UK to contribute to their latest research, Recharging Rural.□□

Improving genetic gains in global agriculture

SRUC hosts April workshop on plant and animal genetics R&D.

Change dominates discussion at SRUC/Teagasc Rural Futures Conference

Farming cannot look like it does now in one or two generations’ time.

Seeking better rural futures

Joint workshop will look at shared rural challenges in Scotland and Ireland.