

Farming Today broadcasts from Oatridge

The BBC's Farming Today team visited SRUC's Oatridge Campus recently to record an edition of the daily programme which focuses on key agricultural issues.

Researchers at SRUC host European project meeting

Researchers at SRUC recently hosted the annual meeting of iSAGE – a multi-million pound EU-funded research project aiming to future proof our sheep and goat farming industry.

SRUC is key partner in new EU ReMIX project

A team from SRUC's Crop and Soil Systems (CSS) and Land Economy Environment and Society (LEES) research groups recently attended the kick-off meeting of the new EU project ReMIX.

Food Security students visit Malaysia on field trip

Food Security students have recently returned from a week long study tour in Malaysia where they investigated some of the complex issues facing one of the most food insecure regions in the world.

SRUC and RBST workshop to protect UK's native livestock breeds

SRUC researchers recently facilitated a workshop hosted by the Rare Breeds Survival Trust (RBST) to discuss the conservation of UK's native livestock breeds which are at risk.