

Director appointed to lead Centre for Tropical Livestock Genetics and Health

Professor Appolinaire Djikeng has been appointed to head the Centre for Tropical Livestock Genetics and Health (CTGH).

Precision farming conference shaping up to be the best yet

Edinburgh is hosting the 11th ECPA (European Conference on Precision Agriculture) this summer – 20 years since it was first held in the UK.

Precision farming conference shaping up to be best yet

Edinburgh is hosting the 11th ECPA (European Conference on Precision Agriculture) this summer – 20 years since it was first held in the UK.

Richard Dewhurst elected as BSAS President

Professor Richard Dewhurst, Head of Future Farming Systems at SRUC, has been elected as the new President of the British Society of Animal Science.

Richard Dewhurst elected BSAS President

Professor Richard Dewhurst, Head of Future Farming Systems at SRUC, has been elected as the new President of the British Society of Animal Science.