

Branching out into agroforestry

A hundred trees have been planted on upland research farmland run by Scotland's Rural College to demonstrate the benefits of agroforestry.

Speaking out about strangles

Speaking out about strangles – an infectious equine disease – is the focus of a new national week of action launched by SRUC in partnership with some of the UK's largest horse welfare organisations.

Courses for race horse lovers

Equine students at Scotland's Rural College will be able to specialise in race horse care as part of their course thanks to the creation of a new Scottish Racing Academy.

Animal Welfare Commission named

An SRUC professor has been appointed chair of Scotland's first independent Animal Welfare Commission.

Victoria relishing SAC Consulting challenge

Helping customers to identify growth opportunities among today's farming challenges is a key focus for SAC Consulting's new Head of Advisory Operations.