

From fatty foods to fruit

The influence of supermarket deals on the shopping habits of Scottish households are to come under the spotlight.

Berry big ambitions

When Craig Berry left school, his love of golf led him to study for a National Certificate in Greenkeeping at Scotland's Rural College.

Children of Chernobyl

Children from areas affected by the 1986 Chernobyl nuclear disaster have enjoyed some much-needed respite at Scotland's Rural College this summer.

Heavy bale warning

Farmers are being warned about the dangers posed by heavy straw bales due to the recent poor weather conditions.

Funding for farm resilience planning

Specialist support and advice worth up to £1,000 has been announced for farm resilience planning in the face of current Brexit and market uncertainty.