

The Beekeeper of Stalag 383

The long forgotten story of a beekeeping Scottish prisoner of war has been unearthed by researchers at Scotland's Rural College, writes Nick Draine.

---

Walking away from Walkers

After watching the BBC documentary War on Plastic, Nikki McIntosh was inspired to go plastic-free.

---

Beware summer mastitis

A beef expert at Scotland's Rural College has highlighted the importance of checking cattle following reports of large numbers of summer mastitis cases.

---

Silver status for Redwings

Redwings was recognised for its work to control equine strangles by being awarded PASS Silver Status by SRUC Veterinary Services, which runs the national Premium Assured Strangles Scheme.

---

Catch of the day

Countryside Management graduate Eilidh Player has netted the perfect job after gaining an honours degree from Scotland's Rural College.