

ESAs highlight the relevance of legislative changes for the Key Information Document for PRIIPs

□ Today, the European Supervisory Authorities (ESAs) wrote a letter to the European Commission expressing their concerns regarding the possibility of duplicating information requirements for investment funds from 1 January 2020 and the importance of legislative changes to avoid such a situation.

For more information, please see the website of the Joint Committee of the European Supervisory Authorities.