

Evendons Lane

A tanker stuck in a sink hole on Evendons Lane is very disruptive to local travel and to the local school. I have written to the company to urge them to take more rapid action to remove their vehicle so the road can be repaired as quickly as possible. They are well aware of the need to sort the problem out but claim it will take time as they need to get a crane in. The sooner the better.