

ExCo Non-official Members congratulate Grace Lau on winning bronze medal for Hong Kong at Tokyo Olympics

The following is issued on behalf of the Executive Council Secretariat:

The Non-official Members of the Executive Council (ExCo Non-official Members) today (August 5) extended their warmest congratulations to Hong Kong karate athlete Grace Lau on winning a bronze medal for Hong Kong in the Women's Kata event at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. They also expressed their heartfelt gratitude to her coach and her team.

The Convenor of the ExCo Non-official Members, Mr Bernard Chan, said, "After winning various medals at international competitions in recent years, Grace Lau today once again demonstrated her exceptional skills and the demeanour of a great athlete at the Olympic Games, claiming one more medal for the Hong Kong, China Delegation. We are proud of her remarkable achievement."

The ExCo Non-official Members hope that the Hong Kong, China Delegation will continue to unleash their potential and achieve outstanding results in the coming events.
