

ExCo Non-official Members congratulate Leung Yuk-wing on winning bronze medal at Tokyo Paralympics for Hong Kong

The following is issued on behalf of the Executive Council Secretariat:

The Non-official Members of the Executive Council (ExCo Non-official Members) today (September 1) expressed their warmest congratulations to Hong Kong athlete Leung Yuk-wing for winning a bronze medal for Hong Kong in the Boccia Mixed Individual BC4 event at the Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games. They also expressed their heartfelt gratitude to his coach and the team.

The Convenor of the ExCo Non-official Members, Mr Bernard Chan, said, "As a veteran player, Leung Yuk-wing remained calm in adversity during the match. With his outstanding skills, Leung scored a medal in the same event for the fourth time and won the second medal for the Hong Kong, China Delegation in the Games. We are proud of his remarkable achievement."

The ExCo Non-official Members extended their warmest appreciation to other Hong Kong athletes for making their best endeavours in various competitions at the Games in the past few days. They hope that the Hong Kong, China Delegation will continue to unleash their potential and strive for good results in the remaining events.
