

Exhibition of Beer's flood history to open in Devon

Lessons learned from historic flooding are to be shared with the current generation to urge them to act now and protect their own loved ones and property.