

Expert panel appointed to advise on the BBC's future funding

Nine leading industry experts have been selected to provide independent advice and expertise to the Government as part the BBC funding review