

Expert regional innovation hubs given £75 million boost to local research, businesses and economies across UK

Regional clusters of innovation across the UK backed by £75 million that will boost local economies and pioneer game-changing solutions from healthcare to net zero.