

Exports Minister visits Latin America to boost trade and unlock billions worth of exports

Minister for Exports Lord Offord will visit Latin America and the Caribbean where he will fly the flag for British businesses looking to sell their products in markets round the world.