

Extra funding helps Imperial College Healthcare prepare for winter with Covid-19

Imperial College Healthcare has received funding to help make adaptations to our A&E departments to allow for more space and opportunities for emergency patient care while we still respond to Covid-19 this winter.