

Failure to move Thames houseboat lands owner in court

House boat owner given criminal conviction and £5,000 costs after failing to remove boat from public moorings following warnings