

Families in need encouraged to check for local cost-of-living support as 26 million awards already made

Vulnerable households have received more than 26 million awards from the DWP's Household Support Fund since its launch in October 2021, according to new figures.