

Father & son prosecuted for illegal Northamptonshire waste site

Following an investigation by the Environment Agency, a father and son duo have been sentenced after pleading guilty to the operation of an illegal waste site.