

FEHD orders Wong Tai Sin restaurant to suspend business for 14 days

The Director of Food and Environmental Hygiene has ordered a restaurant in Wong Tai Sin to suspend business for 14 days as the operator repeatedly breached the Food Business Regulation (FBR) by extending the business area illegally.

The restaurant, located on the ground floor and in the cockloft at 6 Po King Lane in Tsz Wan Shan, Wong Tai Sin, was ordered to suspend business from today (January 19) to February 1.

"In May and October last year, two convictions for the above-mentioned breach were recorded against the restaurant. A total fine of $10,000 was levied by the court and 30 demerit points were registered against the licensee under the department's demerit points system. The contraventions resulted in the 14-day business suspension," a spokesman for the Food and Environmental Hygiene Department (FEHD) said.

The licensee of the food premises had a record of two convictions for the same offence in March 2018 and January last year respectively. A total fine of $7,000 was levied and 30 demerit points were registered. The breaches led to a business suspension for seven days in March last year.

The spokesman reminded licensees of food premises to comply with the FBR or their licences could be suspended or cancelled.

Licensed food premises are required to exhibit a sign, at a conspicuous place near the main entrance, indicating that the premises have been licensed. A list of licensed food premises is available on the FEHD's website (www.fehd.gov.hk/english/licensing/index.html).
