

Film Archive Resource Centre to be temporarily closed

The Hong Kong Film Archive (HKFA) of the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD) will temporarily close its resource centre from November 2 onwards for renovation work. The service concerned is expected to resume on November 30. During the closure period, members of the public can continue to search for information of the HKFA collection online through the LCSD Museums Collection Management System (https://mcms.lcsd.gov.hk/Search/search/enquire?&request_locale=en).
