

Final phase of North East flood scheme starts

Work has started on the final phase of an innovative project to reduce the risk of flooding in a Teesside town.