

First Community Dialogue opens for registration

The Government announced today (September 19) that the Chief Executive, Mrs Carrie Lam, together with some Principal Officials, will attend the first Community Dialogue session from 7pm to 9pm at the Queen Elizabeth Stadium, Wan Chai, on September 26 (Thursday).

The session will be an open dialogue platform aimed at reaching out to the public to invite people from all walks of life to express their views to the Government, so as to fathom the discontent in society and to look for solutions.

Interested participants may submit their registration forms online at eform.one.gov.hk/form/had056/en/ or at Home Affairs Enquiry Centres (see Annex) from today (September 19) to noon on September 23 (Monday).

The session has an admission quota of 150 places. Should the number of registrants exceed the quota, places will be allocated by computer lot drawing. Successful applicants will be notified on or before September 24 (Tuesday).
