

First UK-US online safety agreement pledges closer co-operation to keep children safe online

Statement between the UK and US will bring countries closer on joint priority of creating a safer online world.