

Five Countries and tech firms agree groundbreaking principles to keep children safe online

A first-of-its-kind blueprint to keep children safe on the internet, drafted by the Five Country partners, has been endorsed by major tech companies.