

Flagship summer schools programme opens today to help students recover lost learning

Summer schools will be targeted at children who suffered the most disruption during the last year