

Flight PS752: International Coordination and Response Group memorial statement

The International Coordination and Response Group have filed a memorial with the International Court of Justice instituting the next phase in proceedings against Iran.