

Foreign Office statement on Belarus Parliamentary Elections

A Foreign Office spokesperson said:

The UK is disappointed that Belarus' parliamentary elections did not meet international democratic standards, according to the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) and Council of Europe.

We are also concerned by the reports from the OSCE that the election environment was overly restrictive, did not provide for any meaningful competition, and that fundamental democratic rights were curbed.

We urge the government of Belarus to work to address these issues to strengthen Belarus' democracy and to allow voters and candidates full involvement in the democratic process.

Published 20 November 2019