

Foreign Secretary calls for increased European coordination on humanitarian crises during visit to Paris and Rome

David Cameron will visit French and Italian capitals today to address the growing humanitarian crisis in Gaza and maintain support for Ukraine over the winter period.