

Foreign Secretary meets family of Harry Dunn, 27 January 2020

Foreign Secretary Dominic Raab said:

I have huge sympathy for Harry's family and the pain they are going through as they seek justice.

We feel the US decision on extradition amounts to a denial of justice and have been clear with them that Anne Sacoolas should return to the UK.

The family and I want to achieve the same thing. We want justice for Harry and we want to make sure such a terrible tragedy does not happen again.
