

Foreign Secretary statement on normalisation of Israel and Sudan relations

News story

Foreign Secretary, Dominic Raab, comments on the announcement of the normalisation of relations between Israel and Sudan.

Foreign Secretary, Dominic Raab, said:

I welcome today's announcement of the normalisation of relations between Israel and Sudan – a positive step between two valued friends. This step is a boost for the democratic transition in Sudan, and peace in the region.

Published 23 October 2020