

FRA discusses privacy, data protection and COVID-19 with cities

The European Forum for Urban Security (EFUS) organised the webinar.

It brought together more than 30 cities and other local governments to share information and experiences on the use of technologies such as contact tracing app, in the fight against COVID 19.