

FRA offers its sympathies to Croatia in these troubled times

“Following the earthquake in Zagreb, our thoughts go out to the people of Croatia,” said FRA Director Michael O’Flaherty “During this unprecedented public health crisis, these are indeed hard times for Croatia. Stay safe. Stay strong.”

Croatia currently holds the six-month rotating EU Presidency. With the earthquake and outbreak, we are all clearly in uncharted waters. FRA, together with the EU, stand ready to support Croatia in any way it can.
