

Free health and safety seminar programme at The Cleaning Show 2017

The Health and Safety Executive will be running a morning of free seminars at the cleaning show this year to help employers protect their workforce and reduce costs attributed to managing staff absence.

Topics to be covered include:

- working at height
- preventing slips and trips
- occupation respiratory health
- MSDs
- vulnerable workers

For more information and to book your place go to The Cleaning Show 2017