

Free 'transition' cow management advice for dairy farmers

Dairy farmers will learn about the importance of effective cow transition management at an open farm event organised by Scotland's Rural College.