

Fresh offer paves way to end junior doctor strikes

The BMA will recommend members accept the offer following the negotiations, which could bring an end to 15 months of devastating strike action