

Funds to create pioneering South Wales industrial cluster

£20 million has been allocated to drive forward the green industrial revolution, cutting emissions and creating jobs across the South Wales region.