

Further plans unveiled to improve rail journeys in the North

New depot in Shipley will bring essential maintenance works closer to the north Transpennine route and increase reliability for passengers.