

GC team work on isotope ratio analysis of coffee beans

Government Chemist scientists publish research work on the analysis of isotopic composition of coffee beans as a marker of regional origin to combat food fraud