

Getting things done – Annfield Street #dundeewestend

Michael is pictured in Annfield Street at one of the benches.

We received complaints from residents that this needs an upgrade given its delapidated condition.

We have therefore taken this up with environment management at the City Council.