

Getting things done – Lower Pleasance/Polepark Road car park #dundeewestend

Residents recently highlighted to me that at the tenants' car park between Lower Pleasance and Polepark Road, a buddleia is starting to take over and will no doubt start to cause damage to the boundary wall if left to its own devices.

I raised this with the City Council and have been assured it will be passed to appropriate officers for attention.