

Getting things done – Roseangle playpark #dundeewestend

Many thanks to the residents who recently highlighted to me repairs and upgrades required at the Roseangle playpark – see photos as examples of some of these :

I reported this to the council's environment management and have had the following positive response :

"I will have the site inspected and appropriate action taken."