

Getting things done – Seabraes bridge lift #dundeewestend

Last week, following complaints to me from residents that the lift at the Seabraes lift was again out of action, I reported this to the City Council.

The lift was swiftly repaired but I have asked for – and been given assurances – that signage will be provided with the contact phone number for reporting when the bridge is not working.