

Getting things done – West Port #dundeewestend

Residents have highlighted to us that the pyramid artwork on the West Port needs some TLC.

The paintwork around it badly needs a repaint and the area spruced up.

We raised this with the Executive Director of City Development at the council who has asked the public art officer to see what can be done to improve this, which is welcome.