

Global humanitarian and development co-funding initiative: joint statement by the UK and Qatar

The UK and Qatar have issued a joint statement launching a new co-funding initiative for international development cooperation and humanitarian response