

Going the extra mile: Environment Agency fleet awarded Earned Recognition status

The Environment Agency is the first government agency recognised under the Earned Recognition scheme for high standards in safety and compliance across its HGV fleet.