

Government Actuary recommends changes to cost control mechanism

The Government Actuary has reviewed the cost control mechanism used in public service pension schemes. His report recommends possible changes.