

Government announces a further £600 million boost for councils

Extra £500 million earmarked to enable councils to provide crucial social care services