

Government announces contingency measures for this year's electoral canvass to address coronavirus challenge

Minister for the Constitution confirms new measures for this year's annual electoral canvass, to address challenges posed by coronavirus.