

Government approves draft intergovernmental agreement between Russia and Jordan on reciprocal relaxed visa terms for holders of diplomatic, special and service passports

The agreement introduces visa-free travel for citizens of Russia and Jordan holding diplomatic, special and service passports, for up to 90 days.

Reference

The agreement was drafted by the Russian Foreign Ministry.

An order was signed approving the draft agreement between the governments of the Russian Federation and the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan on visa-free travel for holders of diplomatic, special and service passports (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement").

The Agreement allows citizens of either country to enter, exit, transit through and stay in the other country without a visa for up to 90 days.

The Agreement will facilitate mutual official contacts and create favourable conditions for their further development.
