

Government backs bill to end intimidatory SLAPPs lawsuits stifling free speech

Corrupt elites will be prevented from making spurious legal claims to gag journalists and silence critics through a landmark Bill that gained Government support today (23 February).